PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Executive Assistant with 3+ years supporting founders, managing partners, and C-suite executives across venture capital and global consumer brands. Currently Executive Assistant to Olivier Momma, Founder and CMO of Ekster, a premium direct-to-consumer everyday carry and travel accessories brand and Certified B Corp based in Amsterdam. Specializes in executive operations, CRM architecture, and AI-enabled workflow design. Builds and automates the systems executives rely on, rather than simply maintaining them. Operates independently across Los Angeles, San Francisco, Amsterdam, and remote-first environments with a high level of discretion.

CORE EXPERTISE

Executive Operations · Executive Support · Executive Calendar Management · Inbox Management · CRM Administration & Architecture · Workflow Automation · AI Productivity (Claude, ChatGPT) · Recruitment & Candidate Screening · Stakeholder Management · Executive Communications · Travel & Event Logistics · Expense Tracking & Reporting · Process Improvement · Project Coordination

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Executive Assistant to the Founder & CMO

Ekster Amsterdam, Netherlands (Remote) | Oct 2025 – Present

- Designed and operate the Minakami Referral Program, a custom-built referral tracking system. Architected the full workflow on a proprietary tool developed with AI assistance, and manage lead generation, invoicing, and partner brand coordination end to end.
- Support recruiter and sourcing work across multiple hiring pipelines. Build and score structured candidate CSVs using a standardized evaluation system, and prepare candidate contracts for the founder's review.
- Manage inbox and calendar for the Founder and CMO, maintaining a tightly structured executive schedule with zero missed communications.
- Deliver daily end-of-day reporting through a custom HTML email template and conduct competitor research to inform strategic decisions.
- Partner directly with the founder on brand protection and IP enforcement. Identify counterfeit and replica product listings across Shopify, third-party hosting platforms, Meta, and TikTok, and file DMCA, IP, and trademark infringement claims to remove offending listings.

Executive Assistant to the Managing Partner & Founder

Selva Ventures Los Angeles, CA (Remote) | 2023 – 2025

- Reclaimed 10+ hours per week of executive time across inbox, calendar, and operational overhead. Triaged a dual Gmail inbox of 50 to 100 emails per day, three times daily, using Inbox Zero methodology and dedicated archive and urgent-item folders, reducing principal email time from roughly 90 minutes per day to under 20.
- Coordinated 20 to 35 meetings per month end to end with zero scheduling touch from the principal. Owned a detailed Google Calendar architecture with a two-week lead buffer, conducted venue research for in-person meetings, and protected deep work, lunch, and travel blocks.
- Maintained a live CRM of 8,000+ contacts on Affinity, ensuring data integrity and enabling rapid relationship lookups for deal flow and investor outreach.
- Screened 200+ MBA intern applicants through a full-cycle recruitment process, compressing a high-volume pipeline into a curated shortlist for the firm's Director and Principal, and owned end-to-end candidate communications.
- Owned monthly expense consolidation and quarterly financial reporting. Categorized company expenses in Expensify by type with receipts attached for items exceeding $100, synced monthly reports against annual per-principal budgets in Excel, and compiled corporate card statements for quarterly submission to Carta.
- Led cross-functional personal and professional project management across the principal's full operational surface, including high-touch personal events, office operations, household repair coordination, and logistics for the Selva team and the principal's family, serving as a single point of accountability across work and life.

“MJ punches far above the weight of a typical EA. His decision to move on from Selva Ventures is a big loss for the firm, but a big win for his next employer.”

Executive Assistant to the President

Meson Capital San Francisco, CA (Remote) | 2022

- Supported the President with inbox management across Gmail and Outlook, coordinated stakeholder scheduling across Google Calendar and Trello, and built and maintained the firm's contact database on Airtable with Zapier automation.

Executive Partner

Athena Cebu City, Philippines | 2022

- Completed Athena's rigorous EA training program, building competencies across inbox management, calendar systems, travel logistics, research, CRM, and executive communications. Selected as one of three EAs for Athena's VIP client training track, an accelerated program that prepared me for a principal-level engagement at Meson Capital.
